TILDA (CONT'D)

But last night, I did this scream thing. I broke a window.

JUAN

That doesn't sound so bad...

The memory haunts Tilda.

TILDA

It was bad. It was terrible.

ABBI

So... it sounds like you have hyperacusis.

TILDA

No, I have super-hearing.

ABBI

Same thing.

JUAN

That's kind of cool.

Tilda unloads on Juan.

TILDA

No, it's not cool. It hurts. And because of it, I can't sing anymore.

JUAN

Would you rather be killing defenseless animals?

TILDA

I'd rather be going on tour.

ABBI

Meniere's is a genetic disorder that affects the inner ear. If Sarkov's stem cell treatment targeted your inner ear... it could be the stem cells over-corrected the issue, once you went off the meds.

(turning to Juan)

And you had chimerism, which equals--

JUAN

--Chupacabra. Somehow, it equals Chupacabra.

TILDA

And you?

ABBI

I had steatocystoma multiplex. Benign cysts on my sebaceous glands. It's caused by a mutation in the KRT17 gene. Some geneticists postulate that our sebaceous glands generate pheromones, which I think I can now prove because it seems my pheromones are in hyperdrive. People can't help but get aroused by me.

TILDA

That was a long way across the stage to tell us you smell sexy.

ABBI

It's more complicated than that. You see...

Before Abbi can go off on another lecture, Tilda leans in and sniffs.

TILDA

You don't smell sexy.

ABBI

You shouldn't--

Tilda takes in a big whiff, essentially "infecting" herself with Abbi's pheromones.

TILDA

But that haircut really complements the shape of your face.

Abbi sprays Febreze between her and Tilda. The pheromones are neutralized. Temporarily.

TILDA (CONT'D)

Wow. I really wanted to make out with you for a hot second.

ABBI

Yeah, the feeling's not mutual.
(aims at Juan)
What do you think of my hair?

JUAN

It's okay, I guess.

ABBI

You're really not attracted to me?

Role: JUAN

JUAN

I'm a one woman guy. And you're not that woman.

ABBI

So, that's one human I can count on not to attack me.

JUAN

Technically, not true. So why would Sarkov give us fake pills?

ABBI

That guy owes us an explanation.

Tilda SNEEZES.

TILDA

That guy owes me my life back.
